General Information:

- All 4-H Arts Festival participants must be enrolled in the Richland County 4-H program. The Arts Festival is open to 4-H members in 3rd-13th grade. Cloverbuds (5K-2nd Grade) may only participate in the Small and Large Group Performance category.
- The 4-H Arts Festival guidelines are available from the Richland County Extension Office. (608-647-6148). Registration forms and guidelines are available under "Forms" at <https://richland.extension.wisc.edu/> Review the guidelines for descriptions of entry categories, age groups and time guidelines.
- The 4-H Arts Festival is a Richland County Fair event. Entries in the Clowning, Juggling and Performing Arts categories are eligible to receive a Fair premium--Enrollment in the 4-H project is required. Public Speaking and Demonstrations are also eligible for Fair premiums, but do not require enrollment in the Communication Arts project. Remember to include your performance(s) on your Richland County Fair entry form. (Due August 1) Participants in small and large group performances will receive participation ribbon. Group performances are not eligible for premiums.
- All 4-H Arts Festival participants are invited to perform at the Arts Festival Showcase during the Richland County Fair. The program is tentatively scheduled for 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, September 13, 2020.
- Selection of performances for the Wisconsin State Fair is NOT based on the results of the Richland County 4-H Arts Festival. Individuals and group performances are encouraged to apply for the Wisconsin State Fair Youth Expo. Application information is available at <https://wistatefair.com/competitions/youth-expo/> Groups may record the performance to be submitted with the State Fair application. If a performance is recorded, all members in the group must complete the photo release in 4honline.
