The 4-H Timeline is an on-going record of your activities and achievements. Each year, this permanent record should be updated and included with your 4-H record. The 4-H Timeline will be valuable when you apply for 4-H trips, college scholarships and your first job. Including your non-4-H activities in the timeline is recommended by not required.

You may use the "My 4-H Timeline" form or create their own 4-H resume to keep track of your personal accomplishments. If you choose to create your own 4-H resume, include the following sections: 4-H Projects, Community Service, Leadership, Other Activities, Recognition, Certifications and Trainings.
